	Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure. Conviction obtained by use of evidence obtained pursuant to an unlawful arrest. Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination. Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant. Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy. Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled. Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
	Ground one: Denial of right of Appeal
•	Ground one.
	Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) Right after court on the day of my sentencing, I told my attorney specifically that I wanted to file an appeal and that I wanted him to file a Notice of Appeal. He told me that I had no right to file any attack on my conviction or sentence whatever and that he would not file any papers on my behalf.
	Ground two: Ineffective assistance of counsel prior to plea, at plea and at sentencing.
	Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law)
	See p. 5(a) Ground three:
•	Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law)

Counsel Randy Taylor failed to investigate the facts and circumstances of my case. He failed to interview requested witnesses for testimony at my final sentencing hearing before the Hon. Reed O'Connor. Counsel suffered several memory lapses which resulted in his twice failure to appear with me at scheduled polygraph exams which negatively impacted the prosecutor's evaluation of my credibility, degree of substantial assistance, and acceptance of responsibility.

He failed to lodge proper in-court objections to the length of my sentence and also to the imposition of an unwarranted and unreasonable term of lifetime supervision not justified by the 3553(a) factors.

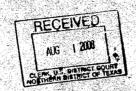

Counsel Taylor gave me conflicting advice on different occasions regarding the status of my case and its outcome. He refused to share discovery materials with me.

He also, at times, seemed to be unaware of who I was, could not recall the names of either Mr. Yanowitch or Mr. Hudson. His behavior was erratic, especially first promising to produce requested witnesses at my second sentencing hearing and then abruptly reneging on that commitment. His angry refusal to file the necessary Notice of Appeal after my request also seemed incomprehensible as I believed that the fee paid to him included that filing.
